Policy Number:		Map Number:		Thank you for consulting Norfolk County Council on the above Local Plan consultation. At this stage it is not considered that the Local Plan consultation (Publication version) raises any strategic cross-boundary issues with Norfolk County Council. Obviously you would consult the County Council when you review your Local Plan. I assume, under your statutory duty to co-operate (Localism Act 2011), that if you feel there are any strategic cross boundary issues arising or likely to arise that you would seek further discussion with Norfolk County Council i.e. through myself as the first point of contact. If you have any queries with the above comments please call or email me.			Officer Recommendation:
